

2019 Pohang Bada International Theater Festival (2019PBITF), South Korea

Dates: July 9, 2019 to July 14, 2019 (tentative, but will be in early to mid July, 2019).

Venues: Three indoor concert halls and theaters: Daejam Hall (590 seats); Central Art Hall (262 seats); 100Theater (160 seats); and one or two outdoor stages (TBD) in the city of Pohang. (for more specifics of Pohang facilities, visit the website at:

https://phcf.or.kr/kr/sub.do?MENU_SEQ=10076&PAGE_SEQ=10158&LANG=ko_KR#none)

Support/Assistance: We will provide participants with hotel accommodations; meals; airport pick-ups (on request); and local transportation fees and fares from airports (Incheon, Gimhae (Busan) or Taegu International Airport) to the festival venues or prearranged hotels in Pohang, and back to the airports at our expense.

History: Since its inception in 2001, the Festival, sponsored by both Pohang City and Kyungsangbuk-do province, has been held annually in Pohang, reflecting the cultural and historical characteristics of the coastal city. With the participation of distinctive Korean and international participants, the Festival has been successfully promoting cultural exchanges among nations, while cultivating and fostering diverse cultural resources as well.

About Pohang: The city is sitting on the east coast of South Korea, has two beaches with city parks alongside: Young Il Dae Beach; and Songdo Beach, near downtown Pohang where both Central Art Hall and 100-Theater are located. Pohang, once was a small fishing village, is now an industrial city of the population around 500,000. The city boasts of the prestigious university of POSTECH, Pohang University of Science and Technology, which has two full-scale particle accelerators, attracting scientists and engineers from all around the world. POSCO, one of the leading global steel manufacturers in the world also resides in Pohang.
