Circular

World festival of youth theatres 'Theatre Revolution'

Location: Tyumen, Russia

Dates: 31^{st} of October – 6^{th} of November, 2019. 31^{st} of October is the day of arrival in Tyumen, 7th of November is the day of departure from Tyumen.

Festival 'Theatre Revolution' has been held in Tyumen since 2007. In 2013 it became international. During 6 years more than 50 theatre companies participated in the festival, those companies came from Moscow, Saint-Petersburg, Kazan, Tchelyabinsk, Ufa, Kemerovo, Yekaterinburg and foreign countries, such as Ukraine, Belarus, Slovakia, Estonia, Lithuania, Hungary, Denmark, Germany, Italy, France; the festival also hosted observers from Belgium, Estonia, Great Britain, Hungary, Czech Republic, Slovakia, France and other countries. During all these years the performances of the festival were seen by more than 10000 spectators.

In 2017 the festival acquired the status of the European festival. In 2019 this festival will be held as the World festival of youth theatres.

Organizers and partners

Founders: Public relations, communications and youth policy Department of Tyumen Region, Theatre Union of the Russian Federation, Central-European Committee of AITA (CEC AITA)

Organizers: Youth theatre center 'Kosmos', Russian center of AITA

Venues of the festival: Tyumen drama theatre, Youth theatre center 'Kosmos'.

Participants: 20 theatre companies will participate in the festival. 10 companies will represent Russia, including Tyumen, and other 10 companies will come from abroad, the maximum number of people in each company should be 10.

Financial conditions: The steering committee will cover the expenses connected with accommodation of and meals for the participants from abroad; the committee will also provide the participants and the observers with the transport to get from the airport of Tyumen to the venue of the festival and back.

Apart from the performances the programme of the festival will include:

- Directors' forums, at which mixed group of experts will lead the discussion of the performances.
- Master-classes on acting, stage movement.
- International conference 'Youth theatre in the context of the world cultural space' (the title may be changed or adjusted).

Selection of international companies will be based on recommendations of the National Centers of AITA and the links to video recordings of the performances, which are expected till 15th of April, 2019. In Annex 2 you will find the application form which we kindly ask

